

THE TRUST COMPANY GUARDIAN

Probate Court at Stonington Grants Petition of Wealthy Miss Babcock—Masonic Funeral for William S. Legate at Westerly—Endeavor Societies to Restore Social Feature of Sessions—Joseph McKernan Appointed Superintendent of Plainville Water Works.

Upon petition of Miss Mattie P. Babcock, Judge E. L. Hinkley of the probate court for the town of Stonington has appointed the Industrial Trust company, with branch in Westerly, guardian of her person and property. Miss Babcock has been in ill health for over a year and has spent much of that time in a private hospital, but is now at her home in West Broad street in greatly improved health. Miss Babcock has in addition to her personal wealth, a life interest in the Barber Memorial building, perhaps the most profitable building in Westerly, as an heir to the late Peleg S. Barber.

Miss Babcock's mother died suddenly in a Providence store about four years ago, and since then Miss Babcock has resided alone, excepting the servants in her home in West Broad street. She is a cousin of John F. Yess and has many other relatives. Miss Babcock was considerably taxed in managing her business affairs, which proved such a mental strain that she sought relief in guardianship.

The body of William Scott Legate arrived in Westerly Wednesday night on the main train Wednesday night and was laid out at the railway station by the members of the Naugatuck commandery, Knights Templar, who were joined by brother Knights who accompanied the body from Providence. At River Road, Westerly, the body was received with the ceremonial service of the order. Mr. Legate was a resident of Westerly was prominent in Masonic affairs and was past commander of Naugatuck commandery.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dock have gone to Atlantic City, where they will probably remain several weeks. Mrs. Dock is improving rapidly. The trip is made in the hope that it will be beneficial to her health.

The Union of Young People's societies of Christian Endeavor held its annual session in the Broad street Christian church. The order of exercises included the reports of officers, reports of societies and an admirable address on "Efficiency" by Rev. Clayton A. Burdick. The society connected with the First Baptist church had the largest number present at the meeting and was therefore entitled to banner honors, but the banner presentation did not take place. The social hour session of these union meetings which was discontinued a few years ago is to be revived in hope of increasing interest in the general work of the organization.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Lewis S. McNeil of First Baptist church, president; Lloyd Crandall, First Baptist church, vice president; Miss Florence Thackeray of Congregational church, secretary; Russell Hemphill of West Broad street Baptist church, treasurer.

The stockholders of the Westerly Automatic Telephone company in annual session elected the following board of directors: J. H. Macomber, J. E. Moxley, Robert D. Dwyer, George L. Sullivan, Charles E. Sherman, John Champlin, Frederick P. Lewis, Dexter R. Potter, Charles T. Howard, H. C. Knight, Thomas J. Bannan.

Miss Isabelle Wilbur Matron at New Hospital—Quartet at Donnelly's Minstrel Sings at Funeral of John Hassett.

Miss Isabelle Wilbur has been engaged as matron and superintendent of nurses at the Johnson Memorial hospital, Worcester. She was graduated from the Rhode Island hospital in 1907 and was for a time assistant matron in the Crawford Memorial hospital near Providence. Later she was probation instructor in the City hospital training school, in the capacity she served for a year and a half and then became assistant superintendent of nurses. She will take up her duties here about the first of March. The furniture and equipment of the hospital is being furnished by the city and it is expected it will be ready for dedication and opening in about a month.
